Dale Francis joins CRVI as Chief Information Officer

CRVI recently announced the appointment of Dale Francis as Chief Information Officer. Francis will oversee the entire information technology infrastructure, including the ongoing planning and implementation of information technologies that supports CRVI's "New Direction... New Lives".

Francis has over 10 years of experience in the field of information technology and has spent the last 8 years in the behavioral healthcare setting. His experience includes application development, infrastructure and data management, telecommunication, and major software implementations including electronic health record (EHR) and financial systems. He has served on several national user groups and statewide committees.

Dale has a bachelor's degree in computer science from Radford University. He and his family are natives of Virginia.

About Crystal Run Village:

Crystal Run Village is a private not-for-profit organization that provides services and opportunities for people with developmental and other disabilities so that they may live fully and well in their communities of choice with family, friends, co-workers and neighbors. Individuals are provided with support at home, at their jobs or day programs, at school and in their personal activities by an engaged well-trained Direct Support Professional workforce.

Crystal Run Village was founded in 1959 as a summer camp for children and eventually transitioned and expanded to a residential school with two additional locations. Today, the agency employs over 800 people. Its administrative offices are still located at the original site of the camp on Stony Ford Road in Middletown, NY.
