Karen Hartley has joined CRVI as Director of the Crystal Run Village Foundation

Crystal Run Village, Inc. is pleased to announce the recent appointment of Karen Hartley, also known as Karen Hartley Sawyer as the CRVI Foundation Director. Hartley will lead the fundraising efforts for the Foundation under the leadership of Executive Director, William J. Sammis.

Prior to joining Crystal Run Village, Inc. Hartley was the Manager of Community Partnerships at the Orange County Chamber of Commerce. In addition to her many accomplishments in strategic planning, event management and community outreach, Hartley has extensive experience in the healthcare industry working as Director of Sales at Glen Arden and before that, Manager of National Accounts at WellCare of New York.

Hartley's career has taken her to both Coasts but her roots remain strongly planted in the Hudson Valley Region where she grew up.

William Sammis, Executive Director remarked, "I am excited to welcome Karen Hartley to our team. Ms Hartley's experience and capabilities will be a tremendous asset to our agency."

About Crystal Run Village:

Crystal Run Village is a private not-for-profit organization that provides services and opportunities for people with developmental and other disabilities so that they may live fully and well in their communities of choice with family, friends, co-workers and neighbors. People of all ages are provided with support at home, at their jobs or day programs, at school and in their personal activities by an engaged well-trained Direct Support Professional workforce.

Crystal Run Village was founded in 1959 as a summer camp for children and eventually transitioned and expanded to a residential school with two additional locations. Today, the agency employs over 800 people. Its administrative offices are still located at the original site of the camp on Stony Ford Road in Middletown, NY.
