Michael Mitchell appointed Deputy Executive Director of Program Services

CRVI recently announced the appointment of Michael Mitchell as Deputy Executive Director of Program Services. Mitchell will oversee the Residential program and services. In his previous role with the agency, Mitchell served as Director of Community Services.

With more than 30 years in the Human Services field, Mitchell has worked for Orange County AHRC, New Hope Community and the ARC of Rockland. Immediately prior to coming to CRVI, Mitchell spent nine years working in East Harlem, New York City as the Deputy Executive Director for Sinergia, Inc.

Mitchell states, "I am very happy to be back working in Orange County and looking forward to building on CRVI's New Directions...New Lives initiative."

About Crystal Run Village:

Crystal Run Village is a private not-for-profit organization that provides services and opportunities for people with developmental and other disabilities so that they may live fully and well in their communities of choice with family, friends, co-workers and neighbors. Individuals are provided with support at home, at their jobs or day programs, at school and in their personal activities by an engaged well-trained Direct Support Professional workforce.

Crystal Run Village was founded in 1959 as a summer camp for children and eventually transitioned and expanded to a residential school with two additional locations. Today, the agency employs over 800 people. Its administrative offices are still located at the original site of the camp on Stony Ford Road in Middletown, NY.
